

Were you a HERO today?

The University of Delaware Blue Hens are teaming up with local elementary school classrooms to challenge each of their students to pledge to behave positively and fill their Blue Hens Buckets with acts of kindness towards others.

By doing so, each participating student will transform into a HERO.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

This year, your child's class will be participating in the Delaware Blue Hens' Be A HERO challenge, promoting kindness and respect amongst classmates. Program details and information on program rewards including complimentary Delaware Football tickets can be found at www.BlueHens.com/BeAHERO, and a full program schedule is below:

Now - Wed. 10/25:

Students fill their buckets by performing six acts of kindness.

Wed. 10/25:

Final day for students to turn their completed buckets into their teachers, who will confirm with Delaware Athletics students' completion of the program.

Tue. 10/31 - Mon. 11/6:

Online form sent to parents/guardians by the teacher to confirm their child's completion of the program and RSVP for the football game HERO celebration.

Sat. 11/11:

Be A HERO Day at Delaware Stadium: Delaware Football vs. Albany, kickoff at 3:30 p.m. All students who completed the HERO program and filled out the online form will have the option to reserve two complimentary game tickets and the ability to purchase additional tickets at a discounted rate. HEROs will receive on field recognition at the game, and be one of the first 500 HEROs to receive a HERO cape and button.

We hope your child has a wonderful time being kind, respectful and positive, and becoming a HERO!
