

DSCA President-Elect Roles & Responsibilities

This is a three-year term that will include one year as: President-Elect, President and Past President. It is the responsibility of the President-Elect to act in the best interest of school counselors in the State of Delaware and represent them as a member of the Delaware School Counselor Association Board.

The President-Elect will:

- Serve as President in the year immediately following their term as President-Elect and as Past-President in the year following their Presidential term.
- Support the President and other Officers in any way they can.
- Work with the President to learn the roles and responsibilities required for their upcoming year as President.
- Serve as a point-of-contact for any school counselor who seeks resources, recommendations or guidance about issues and concerns.
- Attend the bi-monthly DSCA Board Meetings.
- Make a best effort attempt to attend the ASCA Delegate Assembly and National Conference with the President. Participation is paid for by DSCA, but you must be a member of ASCA.
- Share information learned at the conference with the membership at one of the Professional Development opportunities.
- Stay up-to-date on resources, current trends, hot topics and regulations concerning counselors and be willing to share important information.
- Be a member of the both the Delaware School Counselor Association (DSCA) and the American School Counselor Association (ASCA).
- Participate in regular professional development.
- Fulfill other requests deemed necessary and appropriate by the DSCA Board.
