

Delaware School Counselor Association Multi-Tiered System of School Counselor Advocacy

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Be physically visible in your building ● Introduce/refer to yourself as a School Counselor and use this terminology and signage consistently ● Develop a program brochure ● Implement ASCA Model and Delaware School Counseling Framework - Use data! ● Print business cards ● Celebrate and promote National School Counselor Week ● Follow DSCA/ASCA on social media ● Use Bulletin boards/Social Media (professionally) to spread awareness of the advantages your program ● Know how you are funded within the state and your district ● Consistent communication and conversations with administrators and staff about your program ● Form/Join Advisory committee ● Join DSCA and ASCA and attend conferences (live/virtually) ● Display DSCA/ASCA membership certificate, clothing, mug, water bottle etc ● Nomination yourself or a colleague for SCOY 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Yearly goal setting should aligned with ASCA/district goals and use data ● Develop Professional Learning Committee with the counselors in your building/district ● Management agreements with Administrators ● Time Analysis of your duties ● Develop and share counseling calendar at department/building/district level ● Presentation on counseling program services and results with staff, admin., school board, PTA ● Use School Counselor Evaluation Tool ● Be a member of building/district leadership committees ● Form connections with the community ● Active in DSCA (Committee Member) ● Present at DSCA conference ● Be informed about state legislative issues. Contact legislators and attend forums ● Attend DSCA's Annual Day on the Hill at Legislative Hall, Dover 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● School Counseling program is an integral part of the school and community ● Consistently demonstrate how students are different because of the school counseling program (use data obtained through Level 2 methods) ● Apply for RAMP (Recognized ASCA Model Program) ● Aware of current events/discussions at the Delaware Department of Education ● Communicate with state legislators - invite them to your school and meetings ● Knowledge of issues and communication at federal level ● Actively visit, be familiar with and use the resources found on DSCA's Website - Advocacy Page